

LES AMIS BRETONS DE COLOMBAN
association loi 1901

XXIst Columban's Day 30th June 2018 in Saint Coulomb (Brittany) Programme

Friday 29th June :

concert by an Italian Choir in the church at 8.30pm

Saturday 30th June :

9am : Heritage and sightseeing all morning

- Visit of the « Malouinière de la Ville Bague » (lasting about 1 hour, tarif 4€)
- Visit of St Malo, Cancale and other places (see leaflet)
- 11am : Bagad (pipe band) of Locminé in the village
- 12am : country meal at « la Ville Bague » organized by the Committee of St Coulomb. (ticket 10€)

1pm : we greet the religious authorities at the church

2pm : we all meet on the beach « le Guesclin »

- music by the Bagad de Locminé
- our Archbishop blesses all the boats
- prayer for those who died at sea
- meditation and hymn at St Columban's Cross
- the releasing of doves
- a procession back to the church accompanied by the pipe band of Locminé, the banners of different places and countries

2.45pm : the Mayor welcomes the civil authorities at the town hall

3.50pm : at the church we welcome all the delegations from the different countries and the different regions in France.

4pm : Mass taken by the Archbishop Mgr d'Ornellas with the other bishops and priests.

6pm : Evening at « Le Phare » (reservation necessary : 20€) (1)

7pm to 8.15pm : musical evening : an oboe orchestra

8.15pm : evening meal

10pm to 11pm : to finish the evening, celtic music by the « Quic en Grogne Group »

(1) the printed forms for reservations will be sent at the beginning of 2018.